PRIVACY NOTICE

We at Diamond State Insurance Company and our affiliated companies and subsidiaries, are required to protect our customers' nonpublic personal financial information.

We collect your nonpublic personal financial information from the following sources:

- Information obtained from you, including information from your application, such as name, address, telephone number, social security number, assets and income.
- Information about transactions and experiences, such as your premium payment and claims history.
- Information from a consumer reporting agency, such as your credit history.

WE DO NOT DISCLOSE THE NONPUBLIC PERSONAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF OUR CUSTOMERS OR FORMER CUSTOMERS, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED OR REQUIRED BY LAW. WE RESERVE THE RIGHT, HOWEVER, TO CHANGE THIS POLICY AT ANY TIME. SHOULD THIS POLICY CHANGE WE WILL GIVE AFFECTED CUSTOMERS AN OPPORTUNITY TO DIRECT THAT THEIR NONPUBLIC PERSONAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION NOT BE DISCLOSED.

We maintain electronic, physical and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to protect your nonpublic personal financial information. We limit access to your nonpublic personal financial information to those employees who need to know that information to perform their job responsibilities.

We disclose nonpublic personal financial information of former customers to affiliated and nonaffiliated third parties as permitted by law.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

Some of the statements on the www.diamondstategroup.com or www.uailink.com website may include forward-looking statements that reflect our current views or those of our parent or affiliates with respect to future events and financial performance that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. These statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believe," "expect," "may," "will," "should," "project," "plan," "seek," "intend," or "anticipate" or the negative thereof or comparable terminology, and include discussions of strategy, financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions, statements regarding plans, objectives, expectations or consequences of identified transactions, and statements about the future performance, operations, products and services of the companies.

Our business and operations, and that of our parent and affiliates, are and will be subject to a variety of risks, uncertainties and other factors. Consequently, actual results and experience may materially differ from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results and experience to differ from those projected include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) the ineffectiveness of our business strategy due to changes in current or future market conditions; (2) the effects of competitors' pricing policies, and of changes in laws and regulations on competition, including industry consolidation and development of competing financial products; (3) greater frequency or severity of claims and loss activity than our underwriting, reserving or investment practices have anticipated; (4) decreased level of demand for our insurance products or increased competition due to an increase in capacity of property and casualty insurers; (5) risks inherent in establishing loss and loss adjustment expense reserves; (6) uncertainties relating to the financial ratings of our insurance subsidiaries; (7) uncertainties arising from the cyclical nature of our business; (8) changes in our relationships with, and the capacity of, our general agents; (9) the risk that our reinsurers may not be able to fulfill obligations; (10) investment performance and credit risk; and (11) uncertainties relating to governmental and regulatory policies.

The foregoing review of important factors should not be construed as exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included in United America Indemnity, Ltd.'s Securities and Exchange Commission filings. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or review any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.
